What advice would you give new leaders?

Praise in public and criticise in private – lead with integrity.

Inspirational leaders show empathy and gain respect in how they treat others. Coaching others to be the best version of themselves, drives outstanding results.

Blueprint Europe – Tell me more

We help individuals, teams and organisations on their journey from Vision to Action by unleashing their potential in 3 areas:

1 UNLEASH YOURSELF

This is done by leading strategic planning processes, delivering attitude and skill building workshops (i.e. Emotional Intelligence, Strategy, Planning and Influencing/Selling, Negotiation, Category Management, Project Management, Leadership, Change Management), keynotes and executive coaching

2 UNLEASH YOUR PLAN

3 UNLEASH YOUR CUSTOMER

What INSPIRED you to dedicate your life helping people and organisations unlock their potential?

I get a lot of energy from seeing people develop and reach their potential. This came through my experience of managing teams, as well as more recently networking with start ups and SMEs and understanding how my experience, coupled with the blue chip experience of blueprint, can help support their growth agendas.

Proudest business accomplishment?

Seeing potential in a start up and the young owner as an individual, which I went on to invest cash, providing coaching and business support. It then went through to a sucessful sale.
